Birkhead begins his journey in ancient Egypt, where birds were revered as gods. He then traces the development of ornithology as a science, from the work of Aristotle to the groundbreaking discoveries of Charles Darwin. Along the way, he introduces us to a cast of colorful characters, from bird-obsessed emperors to eccentric collectors.

Birdmania is a fascinating and informative look at the remarkable passion for birds. It is a must-read for anyone who loves birds or is interested in the history of ornithology.
