1. Thread 10 seed beads onto the beading thread.
2. Bring the ends of the thread together and tighten, forming a circle.
3. Thread 3 firepolished beads onto one end of the thread, then pull the thread through the opposite side of the circle to secure them.
4. Repeat this process with 3 more firepolished beads, evenly spaced around the circle.

2. Form the Body:

5. Thread 10 seed beads onto the thread.
6. Pass the needle through the bead next to the firepolished bead on the head.
7. Tighten the thread to form a loop.
8. Repeat steps 5-7 for 12 loops, gradually increasing the number of seed beads in each loop.

3. Add Bugle Beads:

18. Thread 5 bugle beads onto the thread.
19. Pass the needle through the loop next to the last seed bead on the body.

20. Tighten the thread to form a bugle bead row.
21. Repeat steps 19-21 for 5 rows of bugle beads.

4. Create the Tail:

25. Thread 12 seed beads onto the thread.
26. Pass the needle through the loop next to the last bugle bead on the body.
27. Tighten the thread to form a loop.
28. Repeat steps 26-28 for 5 loops.

5. Finish the Snake:

32. Thread 10 seed beads onto the thread.
33. Bring the ends of the thread together and tighten, forming a tassel.
34. Trim the thread ends.

Tips for Success:

1. Use a beading thread that matches the color of your beads.
2. Make sure your beads are securely threaded to prevent them from falling off.
3. Don't be afraid to experiment with different bead colors and sizes.
4. Add a jump ring and clasp to attach your snake to a necklace or bracelet.

Congratulations! You've successfully crafted a charming beaded snake using our step-by-step tutorial. Whether you're a seasoned jewelry maker or a beginner just starting out, this guide will empower you to create stunning beaded adornments that will turn heads wherever you go.
