Choosing the Right Float Trip

Coffey County offers a variety of float trip options to suit different preferences and skill levels. Here are some factors to consider when choosing a float trip:

- Length: Float trips range from short day trips to overnight excursions. Choose a trip that fits your time constraints and experience level.
- Difficulty: Trips are rated from easy to difficult based on factors such as current speed, obstacles, and distance. Select a trip that matches your paddling abilities.
- Scenery: The Neosho and Verdigris Rivers wind through scenic landscapes with towering bluffs, lush forests, and abundant wildlife. Consider the scenery you want to experience.
- Fishing: Different sections of the rivers offer different fishing opportunities. Research the areas to determine the target species and best fishing spots.

Recommended Float Trips

Here are some recommended float trips for beginners and experienced anglers alike:

1. Neosho River:

- Strawn to Erie (12 miles): A popular day trip with easy paddling and good fishing for bass, catfish, and crappie.
- Erie to Chanute (22 miles): An intermediate trip with scenic bluffs and good fishing for catfish, bass, and walleye.

• Verdigris River:

- Independence to Coffeyville (15 miles): A beginner-friendly trip with slow current and good fishing for bass, bluegill, and crappie.
- Coffeyville to Neodesha (20 miles): A more challenging trip with some rapids and excellent fishing for catfish, bass, and walleye.

Essential Gear

To ensure a safe and enjoyable float trip, bring the following essential gear:

- Boat: Choose a canoe, kayak, or inflatable raft that is appropriate for the trip length and difficulty.
- Life jacket: This is required by law and should be worn at all times.
- Paddles: Bring paddles of the correct length for your boat and skill level.
- Fishing gear: Pack rods, reels, tackle, and lures suitable for the target species.
- Safety gear: Include a whistle, first aid kit, and sunscreen.
- Food and water: Pack plenty of water and snacks to stay hydrated and energized.

Best Fishing Spots

Coffey County offers numerous productive fishing spots along the Neosho and Verdigris Rivers. Here are some of the best areas to try:

- Neosho River:
 - Stronghold Dam: Known for its excellent flathead catfish fishing.

- Chain of Rocks: A rocky stretch with good fishing for bass, catfish, and walleye.
- Cherryvale Cut-off: A popular spot for bass and crappie fishing.
- Verdigris River:
 - Independence City Lake: A stocked lake with good fishing for bass, bluegill, and catfish.
 - Coffeyville City Lake: Another stocked lake with excellent fishing for bass, catfish, and walleye.
 - Little Verdigris River: A tributary with good fishing for bass, bluegill, and crappie.

Fishing Regulations

Before fishing, familiarize yourself with the following regulations:

- Obtain a valid Kansas fishing license.
- Follow size and bag limits for different species.
- Use barbless hooks when fishing for bass.
- Respect other anglers and the environment.

With its pristine waters, abundant fish populations, and stunning scenery, Coffey County, Kansas, offers an unforgettable floating fishing experience. By following the guidance provided in this guide, you can plan a successful and enjoyable trip. Whether you are a seasoned angler or a beginner, Coffey County has something to offer everyone.
